What friend of the Union can be blind to the consequences of the excitement which has prevailed through the land? Who does not see the signs, which are deepening, of the alienation and even the disgust which begins to pervade the South ! We are familiar with the schism which prevails in most of the churches, and the rites of religion itself are insufficient to keep down the rage of fanaticism. The Episcopal church is too wise to meddle with the subect of slavery, and therefore the union of this church is coextensive as the Union itself. In South Carolina associations are forming which refuse to use Northern coasters to transport their crop, or to wear Northern clothing. Hundreds of parents have determined not to send their sons to Northern colleges. The Northern watering-places are becoming decidedly unpopular. A general feeling of hostility begins to show itself in the more Southern States; and unless the spirit of fanaticism can be arrested in the North, the ties which bind the Union together are a sketch of his speech we make the following exgradually giving way. How can it survive these tract: continued shocks? It is bound together by sympadestroyed, how can it survive ? These facts inculcate a lesson upon our Northern brethren which could never exist without the trade and manufactures of England, was just as wise as the obstinate prophets of the present day.—Union.

IMPORTANT FROM THE HATTIEN EMPIRE. - We have received private advices from Port au Prince, of the 20th ult., which indicate a war of extermination between the Havtiens and Dominicians on that beautiful island. We learn that the armistice between Soulouque and the Dominicians was to expire on the 30th, and that Soulouque was collecting an army to renew the war. Without our interposition, the Haytiens will attempt a bloody massacre of the Dominicians. The war is to commence after one month's notice from the expiration of the armistice. Our commercial agents have no authority to interfere.
